DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-4, 15-17, and 19-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Malhi et al. (US 5,088,190, newly cited, hereinafter Malhi.)

In regard to claims 1, 15, and 17, in figs. 2-3, Malhi discloses a semiconductor die comprising:

a sheet-like, nonconductive structure 30 having a first surface, and a second surface for attachment to the semiconductor die 11; and a plurality of electrical conductive discrete pads 32 attached to the first surface, the plurality of electrically conductive discrete pads each having an electrical connection portion 32 and an electrical isolated 31 comprising a portion facing the first surface and a periphery 24 defined thereabout.

Malhi further discloses an adapter on the side with plurality of contacts 626, see fig. 6.

In regard to claims 2-3, see fig. 2.

In regard to claim 4, see fig. 3, the sheet 31.

In regard to claims 16, see fig. 3.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Malhi et al. as applied to claim 15 above, and further in view of Orcutt (US 4,712,129, previously cited.)

In regard to claim 18, Malhi does not expressly discuss materials having matching TCE between the die and the layer that the die attaches to. It is noted that the thermal matching is very well known in the art of semiconductor. This matching helps to prevent the cracking might happen under high temperature, see the abstract. For example, Orcutt discloses that the texture and the die have similar TCE in order to prevent the cracking between the die and the substrate.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to use the matching TCE of Orcutt's in Malhi's in order to prevent the cracking between the die and the substrate.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 9/11/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. For instance, Applicants submit that the connection circuit 32 as taught by Malhi can not be construed as a plurality of electrically conductive discrete pads. This is not convincing. Malhi, in col. 4, lines 23-24, states "connection leads 33 of connection circuit 32" and further teaches "connection circuit 32 can be replace conductive solder bumps", col. 5, lines 25-27. Therefore, connections 32 are devices designed to make electrical connections, typically pads. Applicants further contend that Malhi does not include an electrical isolated portion. The isolated portion is on one of the surfaces of the connection pad 20, layer 31, compliant layer; see also col. 6, lines 1-15.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
